

ARETE OnSide Workplace™ Training Online

Bullying & Personal Harassment Training Online

Providing 'real world' tools for the prevention and response to bullying & harassment

FACT: a majority of workers already understand what it means to conduct themselves in a way that fosters a respectful work environment. TRUTH: the real issue for a large percentage employees and supervisors is having the assertiveness and motivation to effectively speak up and deal with issues early on. ACTION: Empower your employees to have the confidence to effectively intervene with bullying, harassment and other unwanted behaviours.

Start Date:
Ongoing

Course Type:
Self-paced

Commitment:
90 min*

Earn:
Certificate of Completion

Price:
$49.95

Course Overview

This online harassment prevention course gives employees, supervisors and managers the confidence to address unwanted behaviours before they escalate. Organizations that take steps to motivate employees to take action, speak up and support their team members, are likely to experience increased morale and productivity, along with reduced absenteeism, stress claims and turnover.

Learning Outcomes

By completing this course learners will:

Be able to recognize and respond to bullying, and harassment:

- › Understand the importance of supporting their reasonable co-workers
- › Identify their role in creating and maintaining a respectful workplace
- › Identify the appropriate process to follow including witnessing, documenting and reporting
- › Recognize the importance of increased self-awareness
- › Appreciate that this training did not accuse them of not knowing how to behave like an adult in the workplace
- › Appreciate that this training provided real solutions for challenges they likely face in their workplace
- › Appreciate that you can still have fun at work and that you don't have to walk around on eggshells

Training that is: Engaging, entertaining, practical and meaningful

Enjoy Learning - Participants are highly engaged and entertained while interacting with 'real world' solutions.

Inspire Action - Empower your employees to be confident to intervene with bullying and harassment effectively.

Meet Compliance - comply with your region's laws, regulations, and legislation.

Who Should Enroll?

Anyone who is looking to prevent unwanted behaviours and potential conflict in their workplace. This training is appropriate for all levels of an organization; from individual contributors to management.

REGISTER NOW

▶ To take a meaningful step towards enhancing a respectful work environment learn.aret.ca

*30 day access